LOCAL BRIVITIES.

About 1 o'clock yesterday a sensation was created at the corner of Thirtieth and Farnam. A horse that looked like a living caricature of the equine race was being driven along to an empty wagon, and as he crossed one of the walks fell down from sheer want of vitality.

The Smith-Brook party, eastern capitalists who went west some time ago to look at some Colorado mining property with a view to investing two or three millions, returned Sunday by the Burlington route.

On motion the following committee on credentials was appointed by the chair: Frank E. Moore, M. T. Barlow, John Ross, M. C. Maney, Joseph R. Redman, Charles Banker, W. F. Boehl, Wm. Harrier, Peter Hiller, Bernard Thompson, Hiram Turner and Wm. Turner.

The convention took a recess of ten minutes while the committee on credentials were out.

Messrs. J. L. Webster, P. O. Harvey, Geo. H. Roberts and C. J. Green made brief speeches in the interim.

The committee then returned and made their report, through Frank M. Moore, the list of accredited delegates being the same as already published.

On motion of Elijah Dunn, the chair proceeded to appoint a committee of nine to present the names of candidates for the legislature.

The chair appointed the committee as follows: F. E. Moore, C. K. Countant, Wm. Turner, F. D. Kent, F. W. Corlies, Fort Redman, C. J. Green, M. C. Maney and John Ross.

The committee came in and reported. A majority report was presented by the chairman, F. E. Moore, Senators—O. H. Deway, W. J. Connell, Representatives—F. W. Gray, Henry Suesenbach, John Christopher, Joseph R. Clarkson, L. M. Bennett, Joseph H. Taylor, Frank Colpetzer, W. J. Brosthe.

Mr. Meany presented a minority report as follows: Senators—C. H. Deway, L. M. Bennett, Representatives—Col. Smythe, Wm. Harrier, R. Wright, Herman Timme, F. W. Gray, Frank Colpetzer, Ed. Leeder, Henry Suesenbach, D. L. McGuckin.

Mr. Meany moved to ballot for the minority report.

A scene of indescribable confusion followed, in which a general wrangle took place. The chairman pounded his desk furiously and threatened to resign his position but didn't.

Order was restored finally on motion of Mr. Countant to lay the whole subject of the committee reports upon the table, and proceed to ballot for two senators and eight representatives in a bunch, which was carried.

Mr. Redman moved to adjourn to 10 o'clock this morning, which was voted down.

The chair appointed L. C. Decker and J. R. Manchester as tellers to take the vote.

The ballot for the two senators and eight representatives was taken with the following result: Senators—Deway, 68; Connell, 56; E. F. Smythe, 2; L. M. Bennett, 6; C. J. Green, 1.

Representatives—Fred W. Gray, 64; John Christopher, 58; L. M. Bennett, 65; Henry Suesenbach, 56; Frank Colpetzer, 45; John Taylor, 49; J. R. Clarkson, 45; W. J. Brosthe, 43; D. L. McGuckin, 24; John Pierce, 19; E. F. Smythe, 9; Edward Leeder, 21; H. C. Timme, 19; Dan Harrier, 11; E. M. Stenberg, 1; L. B. Rockenfeld, 10; Porter Redman, 2; Tom Price, 3; E. R. Overall, 1; L. R. Wright, 4.

Meany moved that the gentlemen receiving the highest number of votes be declared the unanimous choice of the convention, which was carried.

On motion the committee proceeded to vote for county commissioner. The following candidates were named: Gustave Anderson, P. J. Quaeley, Morris Morrison, Charles Childs and R. O'Keefe.

The first ballot resulted as follows: Anderson, 26; Morrison, 4; Quaeley, 26; O'Keefe, 1; Childs, 14.

The second ballot resulted as follows: Anderson, 33; Quaeley, 32; Childs, 4; O'Brien, 1.

The third ballot resulted as follows: Anderson, 34; Quaeley, 34; scattering 2.

The fourth ballot resulted as follows: Anderson, 35; Quaeley, 37.

Mr. Quaeley was declared the nominee of the convention, and the nomination was made unanimous.

POLITICAL PANDEMONIUM.

Disgraceful Scenes at the Republican County Convention.

The Legislative Ticket Put Up by the Syndicate.

The republican county convention was held at the council chamber yesterday afternoon, and was one of the most remarkable assemblies in many respects ever gathered together in the city of Omaha.

The hall was crowded, the visitors including many prominent men from abroad, among whom may be mentioned: Hon. Geo. W. E. Dwyer, chairman of the state central committee; Hon. G. H. Roberts; Hon. S. B. Coulson, of Fremont; Hon. G. M. Lamberton and other noted politicians, who came in to see the managers perform.

The convention was one of the most disgraceful meetings ever held in Omaha, the delegates climbing on chairs, tables, etc., and howling, yelling and cursing until the chamber was a perfect Pandemonium.

Haskell was one of the chief mourners, appearing as a supporter of the syndicate. There was a noteworthy split in his own faction, Messrs. Meany, Redman, Bruner, Leeder working against him with a large representation from the country on their side, but all in a hopeless minority.

There were many hot speeches, and the convention throughout was one of unprecedented disorder and lawlessness, over which their chairman was powerless to preserve order, in the attempt to do which his desk was pounded all to pieces with the gavel.

Chairman Haskell, of the county central committee, called the convention to order, and Col. E. F. Smythe was chosen chairman over Hon. C. K. Countant by a ballot of 41 to 23.

Col. Smythe acknowledged the compliment with a brief speech, and then D. St. Geyer was elected secretary.

On motion the following committee on credentials was appointed by the chair: Frank E. Moore, M. T. Barlow, John Ross, M. C. Maney, Joseph R. Redman, Charles Banker, W. F. Boehl, Wm. Harrier, Peter Hiller, Bernard Thompson, Hiram Turner and Wm. Turner.

PAVING JOINTS.

Three Board Meetings on the Subject Last Night.

The Council Declares for Sioux Falls Granite.

The paving question after considerable delay in acting, in the matter of Tenth street, has broken loose in all quarters at once.

After a broadside from two of the members of the board of public works, on the relative merits of Sioux Falls Jasper and other stone, last evening saw a meeting of the three most important bodies in the city, all upon the all absorbing topic.

The first of these meetings was that of the City Council.

A special meeting of the city council was held last evening, for the purpose, as stated in the call, of taking into consideration all matters pertaining to the paving of Tenth street.

All the members were present except Messrs. Herman and Dunham.

President pro tem Kaufmann presided, and after roll call the following resolution was introduced by Mr. Behm:

Resolved, That the board of public works be, and are hereby, instructed to let the contract to the lowest bidder for the paving of Tenth street, said street to be paved with Sioux Falls granite.

A general discussion of the resolution ensued, in which nearly all the members participated, Sioux Falls granite seeming to be the favorite.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

On motion the council adjourned.

At the same time there was a meeting of the Board of Public Works.

A meeting of the board of public works was held last evening, and the resolution adopted and transmitted by the city council received.

Chairman Creighton said, that this communication coming from the city council, he felt it was binding, even if it had been against his judgment.

He moved to accept the bid of Wm. Mac.

Mr. Barker moved, which was seconded by Mr. Wilson and carried, that the further consideration of this matter be postponed to Wednesday evening, November 8.

There was also called for the same evening a special meeting of the Omaha board of trade.

In the absence of President H. G. Clark, Vice President Lininger took the chair and stated the object of the meeting, which was to hurry up the paving of Tenth street in order that a portion of it might be completed this fall, if possible.

An informal discussion of the subject then took place, participated in by the members of the board, and by a number of property holders on Tenth street.

One opposed any action at paving this fall, as it was too late; another thought it should begin at once, and argued that with such weather as we had last year much might be accomplished by January 1; still another spoke in favor of Mendota stone and one man spoke vehemently against beginning any work until next spring.

Mr. Gibson thought that while the whole paving question had originated with the board of trade, that it had now passed out of their control he offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is deemed advisable to make strenuous efforts for the paving of Tenth street at once and that this board urge the board of public works to make the contract for paving at the earliest possible moment.

The city engineer, Roswater, spoke at length upon the proposition, "As it is practical, under the law and circumstances, to pave Tenth street this year?" He claimed that it was not, but that if paving it to be commenced at an early date, in order to complete the job during the summer, the public has no idea of the work required to get out the stone for the pavement or its foundation, nor of the difficulty of securing adequate transportation.

The superintendent will require 5,000 or 6,000 tons of stone, and the sub-structure about the same amount. This will make over 10,000 tons outside of the gravel and other necessary material, and would be equal to about 1,000 car loads.

He alluded to the contracts undertaken by W. H. B. Stout and John Green, and the time consumed in filling them. It is absurd to undertake the job before spring. The contract should be let early, the work begun in the spring and completed in August.

Mr. Roswater also discussed the legal difficulties in the way. Unless it is decided to pave with granite, new legislation is necessary which it will take eighteen months to complete. The question is, DO WE WANT TO PAVE?

If so the contract must be let at once. He explained the taxation for paving, and the mode of its payment, in five annual installments at probably 6 per cent interest, which would make it easy for property owners and enhance the value of their property.

One of the taxpayers present charged that gross misrepresentation had been made as to the cost of granite and threatened to sue out an injunction if it was undertaken.

Mr. Lininger favored the abandonment of the idea of laying a permanent pavement this fall and instead that a TEMPORARY PAVEMENT be laid for the winter, to consist of plank and be paid for by subscription. The plan was talked of, and will probably be carried out, of laying a sixteen foot plank roadway on Ninth street, to its snugly to the street car track, and that Capt. Marsh plank the track, which would give a wide and save the city from a repetition of the disgraceful condition of affairs last winter, during the reign of mud.

The following was finally offered as a substitute for Mr. Gibson's resolution and adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this board and the Tenth street property owners present that the interests of this city require the paving of Tenth street at the earliest practicable moment, and that the board of public works be requested to let the contract for said paving with the least possible delay.

THE POLITICAL QUINTETTE.

A Harmonious Concert Full of Discord.

While the Brass Band Plays "Glory Hallelujah"

As was announced last week, the political quintette had it all their own way at the republican primaries.

The five senatorial dictators held several star chamber caucuses with their trusty drummers, fiers and trumpeters, Saturday night and Sunday.

The score was all fixed for grand harmony, with Cowin as basso profundo, and Saunders as falsetto, while Briggs held the trombones, Manderson sang contra alto and Millard swung the baton and directed the chorus.

The full rehearsal was to be held at 10 o'clock Monday morning, with John M. Thurston as chief, U. P. musical critic. Although the band had undergone a good deal of drill, the overture was very discordant after all.

While the majority were playing their parts all right, quite a number were out of tune. Before the rehearsal was half over there was a general buzz and growl.

All harmony was at an end. The cause of all this was that some of the principal performers had been shoved aside and preference was given to fellows who sing very high up on Capitol hill, while those who play down in the Third and Fifth wards and over in Bohemian garden were dismissed without pay.

It became manifest that the political concert was to take place at the city hall at 2 o'clock was to be an extra select, aristocratic affair. Mike Meaney, Pat Hawes, Ed. Leeder, McGuckin and other old timers swore that there would be a day of reckoning yet, and a reliable contraband was heard to say that the colored troops had "Dun sighth enuff fo' dis yere crowd."

During the opening overture at half past 2 p. m. Isaac Haskell was acting as musical director, and he tried hard, but in vain, to keep the troops in harmony.

Mike Meaney insisted upon singing a solo while the Millard string band was performing "When I Can Read My Title Clear."

Some of the band insisted upon standing up while Haskell insisted that they must sit down and let Countant act as prima donna.

Mike Meaney asked whether he parted his hair in the middle. (General uproar.) The musical director then asked for an expression by issue ballots and finally he declared Countant's engagement off, and Col. Smyth entitled the next score.

Smyth then sang in a very loud voice, "A charge to keep I have," and in response to an encore he sang, "O, no, no, not for Jo." At this juncture the quintette seems to be on the point of a general smash up.

The colored citizens met last night at the city hall, for the purpose of electing delegates to represent them in farmers' and workmen's convention to-morrow.

C. H. Graham was chosen chairman and Mr. C. C. Carey secretary.

The following gentlemen were chosen as delegates to the farmers' and workmen's convention: Henry Curry, C. D. Bell, P. J. Williams, Thomas Scott and C. C. Carey.

The painters and paper hangers also met last night to select delegates to the Farmers' and Workmen's convention. Owing to the place of meeting being occupied by the republican convention, and soon after by the city council, the majority dispersed at an early hour, thinking that it was a put-up job by the city council to keep away the workmen from the meeting.

Therefore the meeting was postponed until this evening at 7:30 at Firemen's hall, with the request from the chair that each brother painter request his brother painters to attend the meeting.

Mr. E. G. Reilly was elected temporary chairman and Mr. Chas. Reister secretary.
